STUDENT LIFE: HOLIDAY SEASON

WE ASKED THE
STUDENTS OF JMPHS
WHAT'S HOT THIS HOLIDAY SEASON.

With Winter Break rapidly approaching (as in like, this week is our last week of school for the rest of 2022!) students are stressing over midterms and finals. Even though it's Florida, and we definitely will NOT be getting a white Christmas this year, what greater way to relieve some of that stress other than thinking about the upcoming holidays?

That's right, nothing helped our fellow students get through this final week like fantasizing about sitting in front of a fire with a mug of hot cocoa- and thinking about the upcoming break.

Teachers and students alike are excited. We interviewed a few from around the school to see what everyone was really looking forward to.

Leah Mask wants to spend her break in the mountains, while

Mrs. Starling says she's looking forward to attending a concert and also wants to take a winter beach trip. "Honestly? I just wanna sleep and watch movies the whole time," says senior Ryan Spicer.

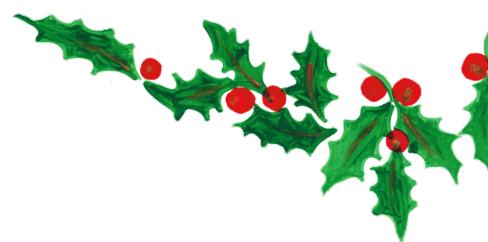

Something everyone thinks about during the holiday season? Presents! We asked students at JMPHS the top items on their wish list this year, and compiled the most popular options to make the

A Parting Interview with Coach Bobby

Q: What do you like about working with children?

A: I have the ability to impact them and share the knowledge I have gained over the years.

Q: Which of your classes was your favorite to teach?

A: I personally liked DIT the best because I enjoy the technological aspects of it.

Q: How long have you been here at JMPHS?

A: Since October of 2017, and I have taught classes such as DIT, DCT, HOPE, and leadership.

Q: Do you have any plans for the upcoming break?

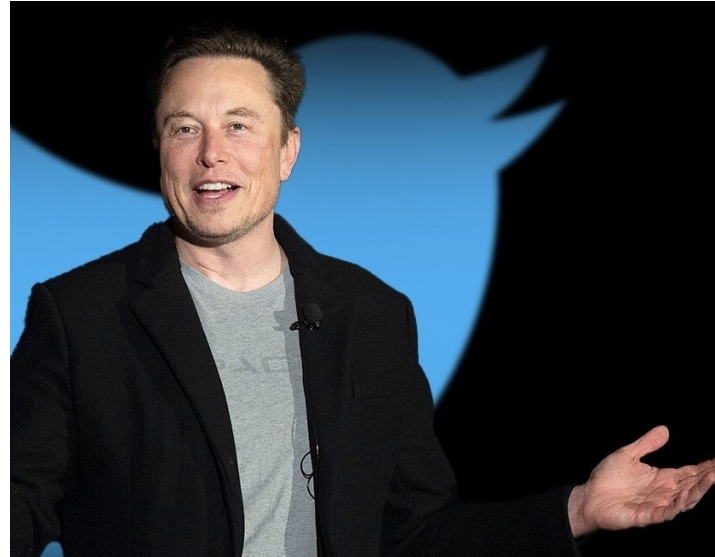

A: This holiday I just plan to spend time with my kids and relax.

Q: What is one piece of advice you would like to leave the students of JMPHS with?

A: To represent your last name well and to remember to leave a good impression
